

2005-06 WHEATON ACADEMY GAME NOTES
WHEATON ACADEMY WARRIORS (7-8) VS. WALTHER LUTHERAN BRONCOS (8-6)
Game #16, Road Game #13
Friday, January 13, 2006 – 7:30 PM CT
Private School League Game

GAME OUTLOOK

Wheaton Academy travels to face PSL-member Walther Lutheran midway through the season on Friday night. Walther Lutheran started out the year on an 8-0 winning streak, but are coming into this game after losing five straight. The Broncos return four players who saw a lot of time last year. The team is led by first year head coach Bob Koehne who replaced Bill Koehne this year. Walther tends to use their quickness and aggressiveness to pressure the ball and create offensively.

Wheaton Academy and head coach Andy Euler's team has battled back this season from an 0-5 start to stand at 7-8 on the season and have won the last three games (Rockford Life, Westminster MO, West Chicago). The Warriors beat West Chicago 61-47 last Tuesday night, the same West Chicago team that Walther defeated 46-43 on November 22 early in the season. Wheaton Academy is battling a number of injuries currently, but the team looks to play hard despite some physical barriers before traveling next week to play in Metropolis.
